Congressman Tiaht's staff will be at City Hall to listen to your questions and concerns.

Welcome!

We welcome Matt Neal as our new Police Chief! Matt's first day on the job was Monday, June 23rd. He has previously served as an officer for the Hutchinson Police Department with experience in the areas of Gang Enforcement, Hostage & Crisis Negotiation, and School Resource Officer. Matt and his wife, Hope, have 2 children. Matt likes traveling, sports, and spending time with his kids. We look forward to working with Matt and getting to know him!

TRASH & RECYCLE REMINDER...

BURNSITE

The Burnsite is open every Saturday from 9 AM to 1 PM. Remember that only yard debris is allowed - NO trash. All debris must be removed from containers.

RECYCLING FACT

Recycling one ton of paper prevents 500 pounds of air pollution. It also will save 17 trees and 7,000 gallons of water.

MOWING REMINDER

Please remember to mow so that clippings DO NOT land in the street. This will help keep the storm sewers clean and free-running. Lawn clippings can cause stopped up drains and surface flooding. Yard waste can be taken to the City Burnsite (open every Sat., 9 am - 1 pm).
